Dedication

The senior class of nineteen sixty-three commemorates the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the MNEMONIC. Volume I, published in nineteen thirty-eight, was a paper-back issue containing thirty-six pages. The MNEMONIC'S growth has corresponded with the growth of our school population. In nineteen thirty-eight, the high-school enrollment was one hundred and twenty-two, with ten faculty members. Today, our enrollment has reached five hundred and seven, with twenty-six faculty members.

For twenty-five years the purpose of the MNEMONIC'S staffs has remained steadfastly the same--to capture the spirit of Madeira High School in a pictorial account of our school life.

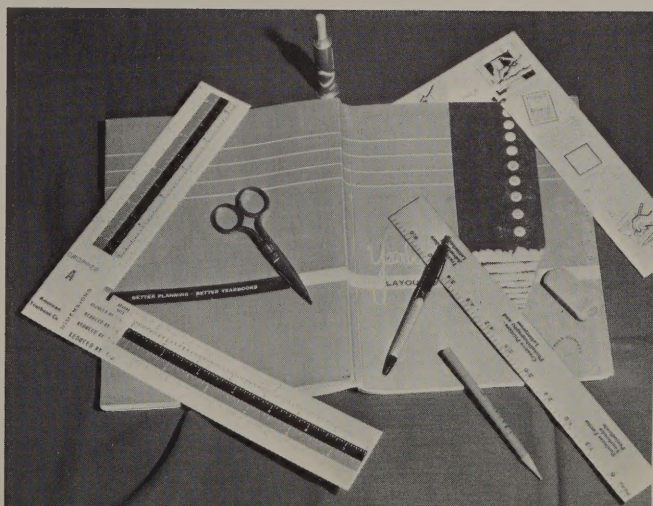

Because they devoted so much in time and effort for our benefit, we, the senior class of nineteen sixty-three, dedicate our annual to the former editors of the MNEMONIC.

High school principal at Madeira when the first MNEMONIC was published in 1938, our superintendent, Mr. W. Marshall Sellman, is the only member of the present faculty or administration who was associated with the school at that time.

The Senior Class of 1962-63 pays special tribute to Mr. Sellman for his thirty-one years of service to the public schools of Madeira.

The span of years in high school has been, is, and, I am sure, will continue to be a very important segment of an individual's life. The last quarter of a century has seen a change in the lives of young Americans. A quarter of a century ago, free public secondary education was available to all, but certainly a much smaller percentage took advantage of it.

In the complex society of recent years, a background of a high school education is extremely essential. As technological advancements are accelerated with the various stages of automation, places in society for people without high school training are rare. The need for even more than high school is pointed to with great emphasis.

In this year of 1963 a good high school education is an essential for all as a preparation for additional study. It is my sincere desire and the fundamental objective of our school that the educational needs of every student have best been fulfilled in the school year 1962-1963.

Mr. Dericks

Assistant Principal

You are fortunate to be graduating in an "anniversary" year, a time to stop and commemorate the publication of Madeira's first book of memories.

It is my wish that your lives will hold many happy anniversaries--from the Latin, ANNUS and VERTERE--the annual return of the date of a memorable occasion. Our lives are a series of milestones; it is very important, when the anniversary day comes once again, to look back, down the road we've walked, to be sure we are following the right path and that this path is taking us where we want to go.

Our MNEMONICS through the years have recorded and illustrated the achievements of twenty-five years of sincere effort and attention to educate upon the part of the Madeira community. As you pursue your individual paths in the days to come, will you think of what you can do with your training and education to better the community in which you live and to contribute to the betterment of society? Then perhaps your life will be a series of happy anniversaries.

The Senior Class of 1963

To the seniors the passing of time is like the reading of a good drama. While reading, we are eager to reach the end. Events as they pass form a swiftly moving plot. But when we have finished, we are sorry we did not tarry longer with each page.

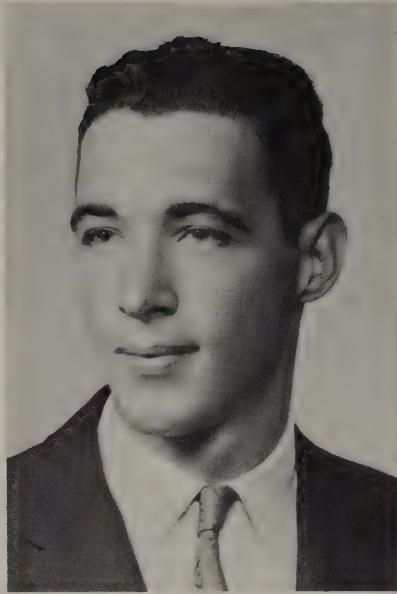

Our freshman year is the exposition of our drama, introducing us to many new experiences--a new system consisting of new friends, new teachers, and new subjects. The complications grow as we enter our sophomore and junior years. Now familiar with our new way of life, we enter into many school activities--participating in sports activities, making preparations for the prom, and choosing class rings! The climax of our drama is our senior year. It is during this year that our final performances are given--athletics, Variety Show, and Senior Class Play. More important, we spend this year culminating our plans for the future--the tests, the completion of forms, and the interviews for college and employment. It is on graduation night that our drama is closed, never to be reopened, but like all good dramas, never to be forgotten.

Clubs

Student Council Officers: Bill Dorsey, President; Jim Kruse, Vice President; Denny Hern, Treasurer; Stephanie Freese, Secretary.

Student Council

The M.H.S. Student Council promotes good citizenship, self-discipline, and initiative among the student body. The Council, which is a member of the area, state, and national associations, consists of representatives elected from each class. Its projects include the publication of the handbook, a trip to Drake Hospital at Christmas, the bookstore, the assemblies, and the school's Christmas decorations.

The W. Marshall Sellman Chapter of Future Teachers of America, under the direction of Miss Wilton, is an organization designed to help its members become better acquainted with the teaching profession. During the month of April members are permitted to teach a class they have completed the year before. In order to obtain an F.T.A. pin, members must earn points through service projects. This year the club's activities included a dance, a visit to a college, and a formal initiation in February.

College Club helps to inform students about college entrance requirements, college programs, and scholarships. To aid students in the selection of a college, representatives from different colleges are invited to our school.

Hockey is one of G.A.A.'s favorite intramural sports.

One of the fund-raising projects of G.A.A. is selling doughnuts at the various sports events.

M. H. S. Band

The Band is one of the busiest organizations in the school. It marches at every football game, performs in the variety show, presents a concert, and plays at assemblies and pep rallies. The Band spends many hours outside its regular class-period rehearsal to make all its appearances successful. The members are not only capable instrumentalists, but diligent workers. They spent many hours in the city walking from door to door selling candy to purchase new uniforms. It was a proud group that marched onto the field, wearing them.

The Band's able drum major, Rick Rintamaa.

Thank You, Band Boosters!

The Band Booster group was organized this year for the purpose of aiding the music department in buying equipment, uniforms, and music. Their first project was a candy sale which earned funds enough to buy uniforms for almost everyone in the Band, including the majorettes, drum major, and Mr. Medert. Their other projects included a rummage sale in May and a bake sale at the Band Concert in February. The parents heading this organization are Mr. Napier, President; Mrs. Stewart, Vice President; Mrs. Hershey, Secretary; Mrs. Marcussen, Treasurer.

M. H. S. Chorus

Chorus alternates with the Band in planning and producing the holiday assemblies. Under the direction of Mr. Benedict, they presented a concert to earn funds for chorus robes. This year the M.H.S. Chorus sang for various community groups.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club includes sophomores, juniors, and seniors. There aren't very many of them, but what they lack in quantity they make up with quality. Accompanied by Sandy Rapp on her guitar, they are a welcome addition to many of our school programs.

Girls' Glee Club

This year the Girls' Glee Club is the largest it has ever been. It consists of almost forty girls, each of whom is required to try out for membership. Lon Elliot accompanies them on his accordion at each of their public performances.

Coach Rape Speaks . . .

The 1962 Mustang gridiron season ended another successful year of football with five wins and four losses. Outstanding individual performance, as well as team play, left few fans disappointed. Lack of size and experience brought about many errors, but desire, dedication, and a will to win were never lacking.

Many nostalgic memories of the 1962 Mustangs will linger because of our excellent group of seniors. Who can forget the excellent lineplay, blocking and tackling by Dave Perin, Bill Dorsey, Tom Kasee, and Dan Bailey and the booming punts and defensive ability of Don Rehl? Few will ever see any better ball-carrying and broken-field-running than Pep Strifler's. Who will ever witness a better played and harder fought football game than the Mariemont game, which, ironically, we lost?

Yes, 1962 added more wonderful pages to Madeira's football history. Individual honors of All-Cincinnati and All-League selection were won by Co-Captains Perin and Strifler. Junior center Sam Peters also earned an all-League position.

Cager's Court

May 15 was the date for Madeira High's third annual basketball homecoming. Even though the M.H.S. cager season had ended, many basketball fans saw plenty of action by watching the N.C.A.A. tournaments on television sets, which were provided in the lobby. The music was recorded, but there was also some live entertainment provided by Mat Greffrath, Bob Lockwood, and Rick Sullivan. At eleven o'clock, Pep Strifler was crowned the Madeira High Basketball King for 1963.

Key Club Spectacular

"It's MY turn to play with the ball!"

Let's go, "girls," and cheer our team on to victory!

Couples dance to recorded music.

On November 16, the Key Club sponsored what we hope will soon become a tradition at Madeira High. The occasion was the "Key Club Spectacular," a basketball game between the faculty and the students, and a mixer dance following the game.

The Faculty "All-Stars" consisted of Coach Wierwille, Coach Rape, Coach Baas, Mr. Effler, Mr. Hartley, Coach Mondron, and Mr. Linton. The action-packed game ended with the defeat of the students by the faculty.

Sadie Hawkins!

Straw hats and blue-jeans were the order of the evening for those who attended the Sadie Hawkins dance sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association. The dance was a "turn-about," open to both members and non-members of G.A.A. The music was live, provided by the swinging Cyclones. Everyone soon got into the spirit of things, and the dance was just as lively as any authentic "hootenanny" could have been!

Show Time!

"Where Do We Go From Here?," the theme for this year's Variety Show, represented people and localities all over the world, and also some OUT of this world! The audience was taken to Istanbul, New York, The Emerald City of Oz, Ancient Rome, and even to Mars.

The show ran for three nights--April 18, 19, and 20.

Under the expert direction of Mr. Charles Medert, the M.H.S. Band performed, while the Madeira High Chorus, led by Mr. Gardner Benedict, sang several humorous skit songs.

Without the aid, knowledge, and unselfish time given by Mr. Benedict and Mr. Medert, it would not have been possible to produce the show. The entire cast is deeply appreciative of their help.

Kurt, Sandy, Swann, Sue and Dave blend their voices in a rendition of "Basin Street."

Southern Belles: Marcia, Kathy, Mary, Tammy, Judy, and Cheryl.

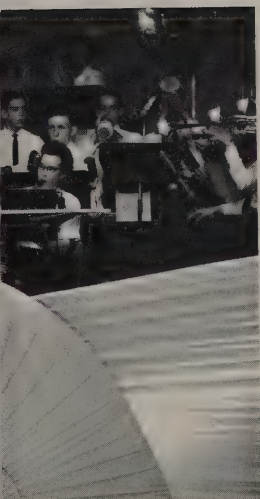

In her final performance at M.H.S., Sue Pawson sang a medley of "Show Boat" tunes.

"Me and My Shadow"

The finale poney chorus joins the band in a patriotic salute to George M. Cohen.

Rick Sullivan, John Carry, Sharon Davis, and Marsha Nichols sing a sentimental rendition of "Tenting Tonight."

Make-up staff members Janet Horton, Diana Keiser, and Marilyn Willing work to transform Larry Cazavan into a late nineteenth-century cabman.

'The Matchmaker'

Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker" was presented by the Senior class on May 17 and 18.

The main action of the play is centered around Mr. Vandergelder, a choleric, grumbling, old man in his sixties, and his scheming friend, Mrs. Dolly Levi, who has taken it upon herself to find a "suitable" bride for him. At the same time, Mr. Vandergelder's two clerks, Cornelius Hackle, and Barnaby Tucker, decide to leave the small town of Yonkers and go to New York for some excitement.

How Cornelius and Barnaby find their adventure and how Mr. Vandergelder finally chooses Mrs. Levi as his wife are quickly revealed in this fast-moving four-act comedy.

The members of the cast are grateful to their director, Mr. Carl Fischer, for the time and effort he put into producing the play.

Tom Foy, John Chumley, and Tom Chaney volunteer their services as stagehands.

In one of the more serious scenes of the play, Mr. Vandergelder (Dave Perin) proposes to Mrs. Levi (Karen Kessler).

"Hurry up, Rudolph, we're ready for the soup!"

Laura Ziel, as Miss Van Huysen, explains the disappointments and illusions of life to Rosemary Jollis and John Fromhold

There are some of the members of the Junior Varsity teams who received letters at the Boys' Athletic Banquet May 14.

These are some of the members of the Varsity teams who

These are only a few of the G.A.A. members who received awards at the annual G.A.A. banquet held on May 20 at the high school.

New and former members gathered in the high school dining room for some Roman festivities at the annual Latin Club Banquet.

won awards in their respective sports.

Members of The Spanish Club dined in authentic Spanish settings at their yearly banquet.

The Madeira High School Band members held their banquet on May 29 in the high school dining room.

SAYONARA

Pat Cseplo and Kurt Medert crown the King and Queen.

Time out for refreshments!

Sayonara . . . au revoir . . . aloha . . . a rivederci . . . adios . . . auf Wiedersehen . . . good-by.

Dave Perin received the Valedictorian trophy for ranking first scholastically in the graduating class.

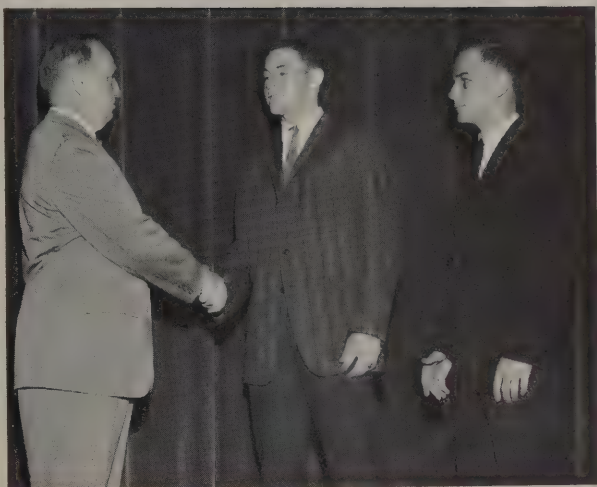

Both Rick Rintamaa and Dave Perin, as runner-up, won the Student Council Award.

Senior members of Honor Society and Student Council practice for the Awards Night presentations.

Valedictorian David Perin and Salutatorian Richard Sullivan are congratulated by Mr. Dericks for their achievements.

Jim Woehr and Bob Schlager received the Harvard and Yale book awards.

Awards Night

Each year at Madeira, one night is set aside in order to give public recognition to those students who have won outstanding honors in the academic field.

This year, Awards Night was held June 5 in the high school auditorium. Senior members of Honor Society and Student Council participated in honoring a total of 180 students for their scholastic achievements.

Karen Baker, Bob Bauer, Jim Woehr, and Dave Perin received state rankings in the Final District State Scholarship Tests in Latin, biology, algebra, and chemistry respectively.

Graduation 1963

The commencement exercises for the graduating class of 1963 were held on Thursday, June 6, in the high school auditorium.

Seventy-nine graduating seniors received diplomas--and seventy-nine looked, with both tears and laughter, from the past to the future.

Seniors await the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

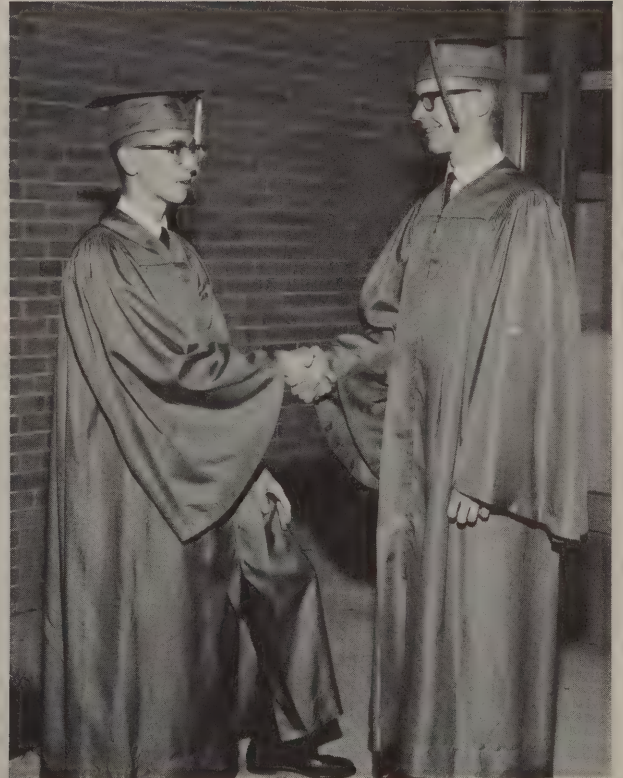

I finally made it!

Congratulations!

Scenes Around M.H.S.

We will always honor those teachers who guided us in our search for knowledge.

Everyone gets in the act when it comes time to decorate the Student Council Christmas tree!

Each year, the campus of M.H.S. is brightened by the faces of student teachers.

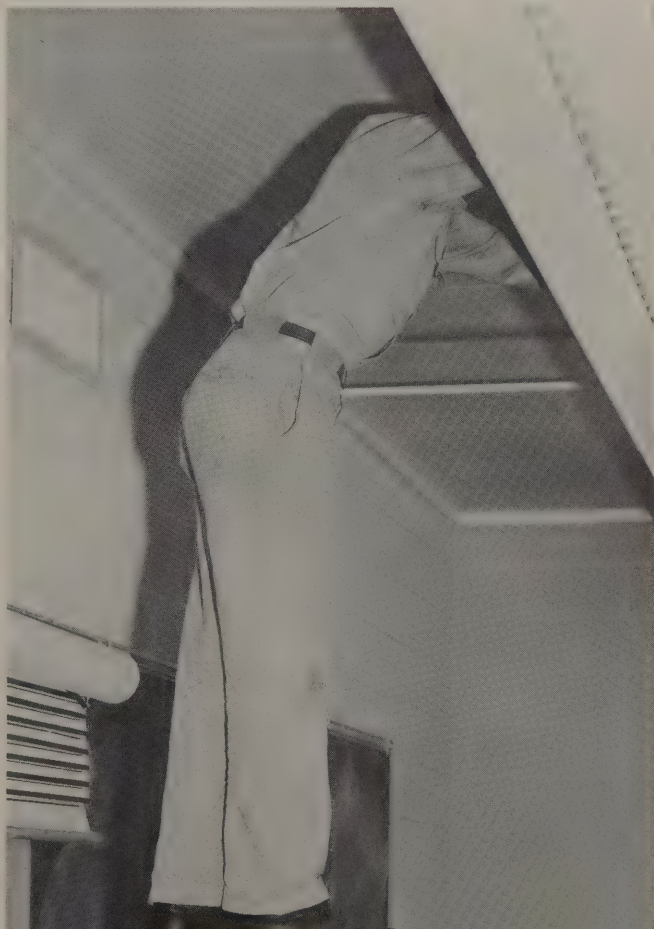

Hey, Larry! Got room for one more?

Lose something, Mr. Smith?

Is this a school corridor or a hospital ward?

A familiar sight at Friday night football games, this enthusiastic crowd cheers the team on.

Scenes Around M.H.S.

Bette Justice and Connie Lindner bully for the ball as Miss Williamson looks on.

"Personally, I think baseball is better than track because . . ."

Let's get that ball!!!

Ah, come on, guys, do it like you did in practice!

The Varsity Cheerleaders proudly display our sportsmanship pennants.

To him who gives is given.
